English Communication

- This course is taken from our regular class materials - the THiNK textbook series produced by Cambridge University Press

- Whether inside or outside the classroom, THiNK goes beyond building strong language skills to developing the whole learner—with an emphasis on critical thinking, positive values, and healthy self-esteem—ensuring academic and lifelong success.

- It's designed for teenagers, but is also suitable for young adults

- One-on-one teaching and group classes are both available

- Includes a virtual activities programme

- Can be used for every level of student from A1 to C1 levels

Study and Present

- This course aims to prepare students in how to excel in UK school and university environments

- We build study and reasoning skills

- We train students in how best to present their ideas to ensure not only clear communication but real impact.

- The six sections will lead you to develop complex ideas and express them with confidence.

One - skills for verbal reasoning

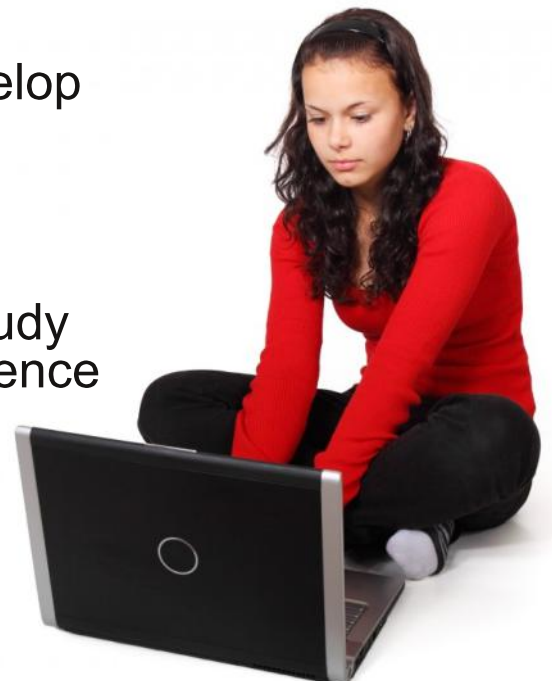

Two - skills for successful independent study

Three - supercharging your school experience

Four - advanced study skills

Five - practice for critical thinkers

Six - effective presentations in English

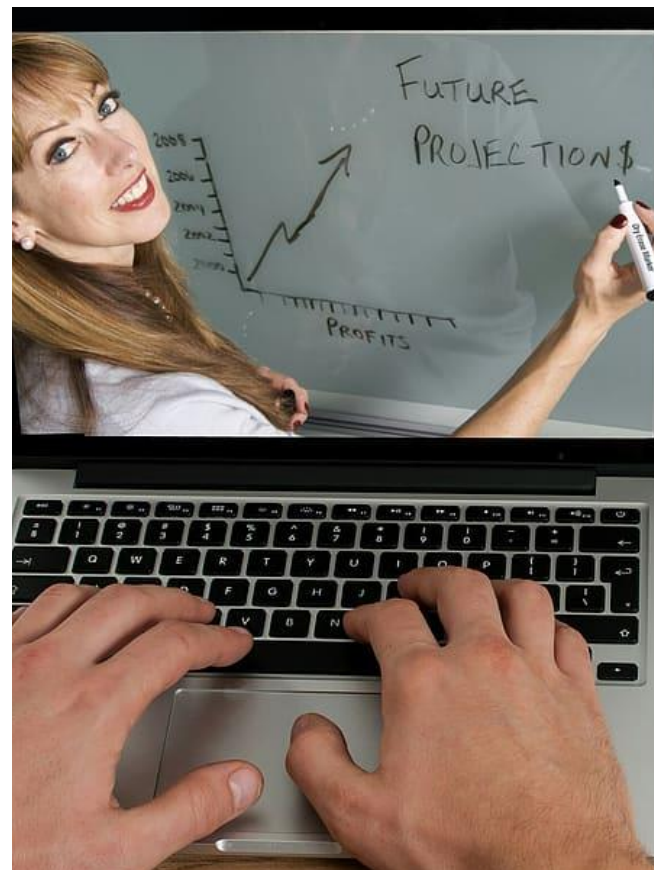

English International Culture

- This course for young learners and adults explores CCL's motto, "International Understanding"
- We take an overview of Britain's thousands of years of history and culture.
- We find out about life in the UK - what you need to know, how to adapt, and a wealth of practical advice.
- Explore the ways the English language is used around the world, and how it interacts with and adapts to different cultures
- Ultimately, we learn how English can help you to become a true citizen of the world.

Tailored Courses

- We deliver custom-made courses for individuals or small group from beginner to advanced levels
- Courses can be designed to support learners both in the workplace and in their daily lives
- An excellent way to improve linguistic confidence and productivity in a range of situations
- The six sections will lead you to develop complex ideas and express them with confidence.
- Topics may include English for Specific Purposes, Business English, preparation for IELTS, Cambridge ESOL and Trinity examinations.
- We are a partner of LanguageCert

University Ready

- A general English course in order to polish your communicative skills
 - Training for IELTS and other university entrance requirements.
 - Preparation for life in the UK and British university culture and customs.
